JURY DEMAND

Motion [Fed. Rule 60(b)(6)] to Lift Stay to Resolve Immunity Related issues

On October 30, 2018 (Docket No. 11) Honorable Judge Virden imposed a stay. I, Plaintiff, hereby move to lift the stay to resume proceedings for good cause because (1) On November 1, 2018 Plaintiff was served a Fed. R. Civ. P 12 (b) motion and under Fed. R. Civ. P. 15 (a) (1) (B) Plaintiff is entitled to amend the complaint which would resolve immunity related issues among other things material to this proceeding. (2) Plaintiff recently served counsel a Notice and Request of Admissions (Fed. R. Civ. P. 36) which requests counsel to admit the United States has no immunity in this case, among other things material to this proceeding. (3) Plaintiff needs to file a motion to strike counsels memorandum, motion, and accompanying exhibits because it can be shown they burden this proceeding [going as far to reference a social security case] being inadequately pled and these pleadings violate the rules of professional conduct as attorneys since their documents only appear to show the United States has already settled this case which entitled it to immunity.

The resuming of this case along with the filing of these documents would lead to the discovery in law and fact that counsel or the United States Attorneys' Office is intending to deceive the court such as it did in the District of Columbia by falsely construing facts about Plaintiffs' claims (in short falsely by merging four claims into one) before a tribunal to obtain a prejudicial and incorrect dismal.

In resuming the proceeding to resolve immunity related issues, the filing and review of the attached documents would enable the Court should see an order is necessary to give counsel between 7-30 days to respond accordingly.

This is because if this matter has already been justly settled meaning the United States retains sovereign immunity, as alleged, it would be because the United States et al has properly gathered the facts, applied law, and could produce a preponderance of evidence to support its filings (docket 9 and 10) such as (1) proof my July, September, and December 2014 are not mutilated currency as stated on the complaints but novelty currency that Plaintiff bought from the United States or obtained from the Federal Reserve, (2) a document showing a cease and desist/warning to Plaintiff, charges or indictment as required under federal, statutory, and constitutional law showing wrongdoing, false and fraudulent claims, and (3) showing the United States et al has committed no wrongdoing in regards to Plaintiffs' right to redeem lawfully held mutilated currency because it was legally seized and compensation is not due because wrong doing, charges, or an indictment can be presented showing Plaintiffs unlawful acts.

In conclusion, the court should lift the stay in order to resolve immunity related issues because Plaintiff needs to for good cause (a) file the attached amended complaint in accordance to Fed. R. Civ. P 15; (b) file a motion to strike counsels pleadings because they can be shown to be immaterial to this proceeding; (c) to file the Fed. R. Civ. P. 36 Notice to give the Defendants between 7-30 days chance to show that the United States has immunity because they have properly gathered the facts in relation to the complaint and acted justly by applying federal mutilated currency law, statutory and constitutional law in regards to Plaintiffs July, September, and December 2014 claims with his rights as a U.S. citizen for them to not be redeemed or compensated for and (d) to show a preponderance of evidence Plaintiff bought his July, September, December 2014 from the United States and unlawfully submitted them not being the owner by showing they are false, and fraudulent claims to the Court.

Respectfully,
